Civil Service:

About done with certifications project. Some grumblings about promotional process...more to come.

Health and Fitness:

Clark reports, as per email from Torfin teambuildr program is available to all through your pfts.

Communications:

Tolan, keep sending photos. Like and share what is getting put out.

PAC:

Hoston reports, vote for the bond. Election day volunteering as seen in email. Sign waving, union shirts, both polling places, buffalo on the move with signs. Trails end with a tab to follow. Talk to Hos with questions. Crown and Thistle results watching. In the press today was a KRCC endorsement. Eckert notes letters to editor, free 250 word limit.

1st District:

Bieker reports, 12 days til voting stay out of trouble. Session ended with HB304 still in drawer, excellent work by leg team. Fireops took place in boise this week. Ceremonial opening of pffi house May 22nd, political photo ops type deal. Rep. Byswinger has an upcoming election. The former incumbent is willing to run against, we must come out loud and heavy, send a message. Final draft of crisis plan made with consultants, will be sharing a summarized version soon. June PFFI e board meeting scheduled.

Old Business:

Eckert,

-Chamber scholarship with tribe match was a good deal. Went to a former cadet. Adn during its presentation Rasmussen had some good things to say in regards to the bond.

-Station land in limbo. Possibility of atlas mill land. Still potential but may go wayward as things are not ready to move forward now and may wind up used for other purposes.

-Last GIS study now 3 years old. Going to get a new updated study done.

-Almost to the finish line with bond effort. Some council has already voiced opinions and ideas on capitol replacement ideas.

New Business:

None

Good and welfare:

-thanks to those who came out to K27 memorial. After L710 hosted tab for pd, $135 spent was appreciated. -Eckert

-thanks to those with PAC contributions and increases. -Eckert
